DOMESTIC PROBLEMS/ VIOLENCE VICTIM'S FORM

A victim of domestic violence and/ or violence has certain rights and remedies, such as the right to go to court and file a petition requesting an Order for protection from domestic abuse, know as the "Protection From Abuse Act."

This PFA Order could include any or all of the following remedies:

- End to further acts of harassment, threats, abuse or stalking by the abuser;
- Exclusion of the abuser from your residence;
- No contact by the abuser with you; your relatives and/ or your children either directly, by phone or in writing;
- Awarding you temporary legal and physical custody of minor children;
- Abuser to turn over weapons used or threatened to be used;
- Abuser to reimburse out-of-pocket expenses resulting from abusive behavior;
- Other relief as determined by the Court.

As a victim you should be aware that there are agencies and services available to assist you. The Women's Center of Montgomery County offers information and support to abused women and men, including advice and assistance to file a PFA Order.
