The Police Department-issued identification card will be valid for a period of three months. Such ID card must be carried and prominently displayed while the person is engaging in activity covered by this permit, and must be presented upon request of Police. Failure to carry and display the ID card will render the person liable for citation and immediate cancellation of his or her solicitation permission. Such card will not be transferred or loaned from the person whose photograph and identity appears on the card, to any other person. This will render the permission invalid and may not be renewed.

Failure by the applicant to truthfully and completely fill out the application will result in the application for a permit being denied.
